DEAR SUMMER CONCERT FANS,

Dear friends, it is with great pleasure that I welcome you to our much-anticipated "Rhapsody in Blue at 100: Concert of Hope," part of Pacific Symphony's SummerFest series at the beautiful Great Park Live. On behalf of Music Director Carl St.Clair, our dedicated Pacific Symphony musicians, Board of Directors, and staff, we are honored to share this extraordinary evening with you.

Tonight's concert is a powerful celebration of resilience, strength, and the spirit of cancer survivors, patients, and their loved ones. We extend our profound appreciation to City of Hope Orange County, our SummerFest series sponsor, for their generous support of these concerts. Together, we offer tonight's Concert of Hope, which is more than a musical event; it is a testament to the healing power of music and a tribute to those who have faced cancer with courage and grace. The melodies of hope and triumph you will hear tonight are a reflection of the daily victories celebrated at City of Hope, recognized among the top five in the nation for cancer care and #1 in California by U.S. News & World Report.

Additionally, we are deeply thankful for the generous sponsorship of Ronna and Bill Shipman, whose support has made tonight's concert possible. Ronna is a Life Director for Pacific Symphony and together Ronna and Bill are among our most generous supporters. We also wish to express our gratitude to the City of Irvine for building this new venue, allowing us to continue offering these concerts and enriching our community with the joy of music.

This evening, we pay tribute to the incomparable George Gershwin, whose iconic Rhapsody in Blue, premiered a century ago, bridged classical music and jazz in a way that defined an era. Our program also features Leonard Bernstein's celebrated "Symphonic Dances" from West Side Story, Gershwin's sonic ballet An American in Paris, and Peter Boyer's major new work Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue. Under the leadership of Music Director Carl St.Clair and with Jeffrey Biegel on piano, we promise a performance that will uplift and inspire.

As the summer unfolds, we invite you to join us for the remaining three concerts in our five-part SummerFest series at Great Park Live—each a celebration of community. On Saturday, August 10, 2024, we are thrilled to present Star Wars: Return of the Jedi in Concert. We are thrilled to have you with us tonight and deeply appreciate your support of our mission to bring the joy of music to our community.

Thank you for joining us on this remarkable journey.

MUSIC DIRECTOR CARL ST.CLAIR

The 2024-25 season marks Music Director Carl St.Clair's 35th year leading Pacific Symphony. He is the longest-tenured American-born conductor of a major American orchestra. During St.Clair's lengthy history, Pacific Symphony has become the largest budgeted orchestra formed in the last 50 years. Pacific Symphony was invited by the League of American Orchestras to become the newest and youngest orchestra among America's Tier 1 Orchestras. Few orchestras can claim such rapid artistic development.

During his tenure, St.Clair has become widely recognized for his musically distinguished performances and his innovative approaches to programming. In April 2018, St.Clair led Pacific Symphony in its sold-out Carnegie Hall debut, celebrating Philip Glass' 80th birthday at the final concert of Carnegie's yearlong celebration of the preeminent composer. The concert ended with a standing ovation and with The New York Times calling the Symphony "a major ensemble!" St.Clair led Pacific Symphony on its first tour to China in May 2018, the orchestra's first international tour since touring Europe in 2006. The orchestra's European tour included playing concerts in nine cities (including Munich, Frankfurt, Cologne, Lucerne, and Vienna) in three countries appearing before capacity houses and receiving standing ovations and critical acclaim. The Hannoversche Allgemeine raved, "St.Clair and his fabulous orchestra completely won over Hanover...with spirit, a sense of sound, and utterly breathtaking precision" and Cologne's General Anzeiger exclaimed, "Electrifying...captivating!"

The orchestra made its national PBS debut in June 2018 on Great Performances with Peter Boyer's Ellis Island: The Dream of America, conducted by St.Clair. Among St.Clair's many creative endeavors are the highly acclaimed American Composers Festival, which began in 2000, and the opera initiative, "Symphonic Voices," which has included concert-opera productions of Madama Butterfly, The Magic Flute, Aida, Turandot, Carmen, La Traviata, Tosca, Rigoletto, and La Bohème in previous seasons.

St.Clair's commitment to the development and performance of new works by composers is evident in the wealth of commissions and recordings by the Symphony. Beginning in the 2023-24 season, Viet Cuong was named the Symphony's Composer-in-Residence. The 2016-17 season featured commissions from pianist/composer Conrad Tao and Composer-in-Residence Narong Prancharoen, a follow-up to the slate of recordings of works commissioned and performed by the Symphony in recent years. Other commissions include John Wineglass' Alone Together, William Bolcom's Songs of Lorca and Prometheus, Elliot Goldenthal's Symphony in G-sharp minor, Richard Danielpour's Toward a Season of Peace, Philip Glass' The Passion of Ramakrishna, and Michael Daugherty's Mount Rushmore, and The Gospel According to Sister Aimee. St.Clair has led the orchestra in other critically acclaimed recordings including two piano concertos of Lukas Foss, Danielpour's An American Requiem, and Goldenthal's Fire Water Paper: A Vietnam Oratorio with cellist Yo-Yo Ma. Other commissioned composers include James Newton Howard, Zhou Long, Tobias Picker, Frank Ticheli, Sir James MacMillan, Chen Yi, Curt Cacioppo, Stephen Scott, Jim Self (Pacific Symphony's Principal Tubist), and Christopher Theofanidis.

Internationally, St.Clair has appeared with orchestras throughout the world. He has led orchestras in Asia, Central and South America, and Europe. In January 2024, following a 27-year relationship with Sinfonieorchester Wuppertal (Germany), St.Clair was named Honorary Guest Conductor for Life. In 2023, he concluded a successful 10-year tenure as Music Director with the National Symphony of Costa Rica. From 2008-10, St.Clair was General Music Director for the Komische Oper in Berlin. He also served as General Music Director and Chief Conductor of the German National Theater and Staatskapelle (GNTS) in Weimar, Germany, where he led Wagner's Ring Cycle to critical acclaim. He was the first non-European to hold this position at the GNTS; the role also gave him the distinction of simultaneously leading one of the newest orchestras in America and one of the oldest in Europe.

St.Clair has led the Boston Symphony Orchestra (where he served as Assistant Conductor for several years 1985-90), New York Philharmonic, Philadelphia Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, and the San Francisco, Seattle, Detroit, Atlanta, Houston, Indianapolis, Montreal, Toronto, and Vancouver symphonies, among many.

Carl St.Clair is a strong advocate of music education for all ages and is internationally recognized for his distinguished career as a master teacher. He has been essential to the creation and implementation of the Symphony's extensive education and community engagement programs. In addition to his professional conducting career, St.Clair has worked with most major music schools across the country. He received an Honorary Doctorate from Chapman University and has served as a Presidential Fellow, working closely with the students of the College of the Performing Arts (2018-22). St.Clair has been named "Distinguished Alumni" at the University of Texas Butler School of Music beginning 2019. And, for over 30 years, he has had a continuing relationship with the USC Thornton School of Music where he is Artistic Leader and Principal Conductor of the orchestral and large ensemble program.

ABOUT PACIFIC SYMPHONY

Pacific Symphony, led by Music Director Carl St.Clair for the last 35 years, has been the resident orchestra of the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall since 2006. Currently celebrating its 46th anniversary season, the Symphony is the largest orchestra formed in the U.S. in the last 50 years and is recognized as an outstanding ensemble making strides on both the national and international scene, as well as in its own community of Orange County.

In April 2018, Pacific Symphony made its debut at Carnegie Hall as one of two orchestras invited to perform during a yearlong celebration of composer Philip Glass' 80th birthday, and the following month the orchestra toured China. The orchestra made its national PBS debut in June 2018 on Great Performances with Peter Boyer's Ellis Island: The Dream of America, conducted by St.Clair. Presenting more than 100 concerts and events a year and a rich array of education and community engagement programs, the Symphony reaches more than 300,000 residents—from school children to senior citizens.

In both 2005 and 2010, the Symphony received the prestigious ASCAP Award for Adventurous Programming. Also in 2010, a study by the League of American Orchestras, Fearless Journeys, included the Symphony as one of the country's five most innovative orchestras. The Symphony's award-winning education and community engagement programs benefit from the vision of St.Clair and are designed to integrate the orchestra and its music into the community in ways that stimulate all ages.

The Symphony's Class Act program has been honored as one of nine exemplary orchestra education programs by the National Endowment for the Arts and the League of American Orchestras. The list of instrumental training initiatives includes Pacific Symphony Youth Orchestra, Pacific Symphony Youth Wind Ensemble, Pacific Symphony Santiago Strings, and Pacific Symphony Youth Concert Band.

The Symphony also spreads the joy of music through arts-X-press, Class Act, Heartstrings, Lantern Festival Orchestra, Symphony on the Go!, and Symphony in the Cities.

PROGRAM NOTES

Symphonic Dances from West Side Story Leonard Bernstein

Born: Aug. 25, 1918 in Lawrence, MA
Died: Oct. 14, 1990 in The Dakota, NY
Composed: 1960

Premiered: Feb. 13, 1961 by the New York Philharmonic with Lukas Foss conducting

Most recent Pacific Symphony performance: Aug. 9, 2008 at the Irvine Meadows/Verizon Wireless Amphitheatre with Carl St.Clair conductor

Approximate duration: 22 minutes

Instrumentation: three flutes including piccolo, three oboes including English horn, four clarinets including bass clarinet and e-flat clarinet, three bassoons including contrabassoon, four horns, three trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, timpani, percussion, harp, piano/celesta, alto sax, and strings

This musical, with score by Bernstein and lyrics by a young Stephen Sondheim, opened in 1957 at New York's Winter Garden Theatre, adapting Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet as a contemporary saga with a timely social message (ethnic hostility in modern New York City). The musical score: bold, dissonant, intricate, yet irresistible in its rhythmic vitality, drives home the social message while celebrating love and providing entertainment. The many great melodies in Bernstein's score easily hold their own even without singing and dancing; the symphonic suite he prepared in 1961 (with help from Sid Ramin and Irwin Kostal), has become almost as popular as the original stage version.

The suite opens with the prologue from the show, in which the rivalry between the two gangs, the Sharks and the Jets, is acted out in pantomime. Next, we hear "Somewhere" and "Scherzo," two excerpts from the musical's dream ballet sequence. "Mambo" and "Cha- Cha" are from the scene at the gym where Tony and Maria first meet during a dance. The music of the "Meeting Scene" accompanies their first words to one another. In the "Cool" fugue, the Jets make a show of their fierce power, and "Rumble" is the climactic showdown where the leaders of both gangs are killed. The poignant, lyrical Finale recalls the dream of "Somewhere" as, after so much agitation and violence, the piece ends in a whisper.

Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue Peter Boyer

Born: 1970

Composed: 2022-23

Premiered: June 30, 2023 by the Utah Symphony with Benjamin Manis conducting and Jeffrey Biegel as piano soloist

Most recent Pacific Symphony performance: This is a Pacific Symphony and California premiere

Approximate duration: 18 minutes

Instrumentation: three flutes including piccolo, three oboes including English horn, three clarinets including bass clarinet, three bassoons including contrabassoon, four horns, three trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, timpani, percussion, strings, and solo piano

Program Note by Peter Boyer

This work was conceived by the prodigious American pianist Jeffrey Biegel, who approached me in early 2020 with his ambitious idea for a project to celebrate the centennial of George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue (RIB), in February 2024. I hesitated before accepting the commission, knowing that the piece I was being asked to compose would be performed repeatedly alongside RIB—one of the most iconic and beloved works of American music. I wondered how any piece of mine could withstand the inevitable comparisons to the Gershwin work—especially with Jeffrey's chosen title, Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue. However, he is as persuasive as he is gifted, and so I accepted the commission.

Like the Gershwin work, my Rhapsody is in a single long multi-sectional movement. As Gershwin did a century ago, I have attempted to capture a sense of American energy and optimism in much of this music. Though my musical style typically does not employ any jazz elements, in this work it seemed appropriate to include some allusions to a 1920s, "quasi-Gershwin" style. There is one section of the work, largely pastiche, which does this, in the form of a "bluesy scherzo." The slow, lyrical section of the work, coming after its midpoint, might be heard as both an allusion to America's wide-open spaces, and to my personal belief in the country's promise, despite its many challenges.

Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue was premiered with Jeffrey Biegel and the Utah Symphony, Benjamin Manis, conductor, on June 30, 2023 at the Deer Valley Snow Park Amphitheater in Park City, Utah. In that splendid outdoor setting, the new work received a prolonged standing ovation from an audience numbering over 3,000, which was a joy to experience. That performance launched the "Rhapsody National Initiative," a remarkably ambitious endeavor created by Jeffrey to perform this work in every one of the 50 United States by 2026. As of this writing, a total of 54 orchestras in all 50 states have committed to this project, a group which, to my knowledge, is unprecedented in its scope for a new work for soloist and orchestra.

In November 2023, I conducted the London Symphony Orchestra in a recording session of Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue, with Jeffrey as soloist. Naxos Records released this recording in February 2024, coinciding with the centennial of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, and I'm thrilled that, through extensive radio play and streaming, this new work is reaching a large international audience.

— Peter Boyer, July 2024

An American in Paris

George Gershwin

Born: Sept. 26, 1898 in New York City

Died: July 11, 1937 in Los Angeles

Composed: 1928

Premiered: Dec. 13, 1928 by the New York Philharmonic with Walter Damrosch conducting

Most recent Pacific Symphony performance: May 14, 2023 in the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall with Carl St.Clair conducting

Approximate duration: 20 minutes

Instrumentation: three flutes including piccolo, three oboes including English horn, three clarinets including bass clarinet, two bassoons, four horns, three trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, timpani, percussion, celesta, alto sax, tenor sax, baritone sax, and strings

An American in Paris is rhapsodic and buoyant, a combination of characteristically French textures and can-can rhythms, a traditional tune or two, and Gershwin's usual melodic and harmonic inventiveness. It's not surprising that Gershwin manages to make American blues scales sound Gallic, as French composers were already using the flatted third and seventh notes of the scale in their own works.

Besides, remember—this is an American in Paris, so we hear the Parisian scene through Yankee ears. The work is structured in five rough sections that form a loosely arched structure, A-B-A in form. But it is best heard without an awareness of these formal elements. Gershwin's music takes us to jazz joints and dance clubs, and it begins with one of the most vivid streetscapes in all of music, an evocation of a Parisian traffic jam that is simultaneously beautiful and hilarious in its verisimilitude.

Though he was already doing well as a songwriter, the young Gershwin had so far experienced only mixed success with his serious compositions, and critics were less than enthusiastic about An American in Paris. But its joy and piquant realism enthralled listeners. Gershwin had even brought a passel of authentic Parisian car horns for the premiere.

Rhapsody in Blue

George Gershwin

Born: Sept. 26, 1898 in New York City

Died: July 11, 1937 in Los Angeles

Composed: 1924

Premiered: February 12, 1924 at Aeolian Hall in New York with Paul Whiteman conducting his orchestra

Most recent Pacific Symphony

performance: May 14, 2023 in the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall with Carl St.Clair conducting

Approximate duration: 16 minutes

Instrumentation: two flutes, two oboes, three clarinets including bass clarinet, two bassoons, three horns, three trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, timpani, percussion, two alto sax, tenor sax, banjo, strings, and solo piano

George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue is usually cited as the most popular and widely performed of all American classical works. Gershwin composed it as a commission for the influential conductor Paul Whiteman, who asked him for a piece with the characteristics of a classical piano concerto, but suitable for inclusion in an all-jazz concert. Scored for solo piano and jazz band, Rhapsody in Blue combines elements of classical music with jazz effects and formal elements including “blue notes”—especially flatted third and seventh notes of the diatonic scale.

Its premiere, when Gershwin was 25, took place in New York with the Palais Royal Orchestra under Paul Whiteman's baton. Billed as “An Experiment in Modern Music,” the event attracted such luminaries as John Phillip Sousa and Sergei Rachmaninoff. The “experiment” proved long and tedious, with the audience's attention reportedly wandering until the Rhapsody's opening clarinet glissando brought an electrified hush to the hall. Not surprisingly, the work's melodic richness and the rhythmic drive kept everyone spellbound.

According to the account that Gershwin reported to his first biographer, Isaac Goldberg, the Rhapsody was inspired by a train ride he took only five weeks before the piece was due. “It was on the train, with its steely rhythms, its rattle-ty bang, that is so often so stimulating to a composer—I frequently hear music in the very heart of the noise... And there I suddenly heard, and even saw on paper—the complete construction of the Rhapsody, from beginning to end.”

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Jeffrey Biegel

Pianist

In an age when many artists' fortunes begin with a meteoric ascent and quickly cool with the inexorable free-fall, pianist Jeffrey Biegel has managed to buck that trend, fashioning a career of steady success studded with concerts at major venues with major orchestras, a GRAMMY®-winning recording, and more than 25 commissioned works by living composers.

His life takes its roots from age three, barely able to hear or speak, until corrected by surgery. The 'reverse Beethoven' phenomenon explains his lifelong commitment to music, having heard only vibrations in his formative years.

The pandemic year of 2020 focused on Biegel composing original Waltzes of Hope, Sonatina, and Three Reflections: JFK, RBG, and MLK for solo piano, and for piano and orchestra, orchestrations by Harrison Sheckler. 2021 saw the world premieres of his Reflection of Justice: An Ode to Ruth Bader Ginsburg with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, and Ellen Taaffe Zwilich's Remembering Ruth Bader Ginsburg for mezzo-soprano, piano, and orchestra in tribute to the late Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, featuring mezzo-soprano Denyce Graves. Also, the world premiere of Ellen Taaffe Zwilich's Shadows, newly arranged for piano and seven players with the Idaho State Civic Symphony.

In 2022, he premiered Jim Stephenson's Piano Concerto, Daniel Perttu's A Planets Odyssey for piano and orchestra, Farhad Poupel's The Legend of Bijan and Manijeh for piano, orchestra, and chorus, his own concerto, Three Reflections: Freedom (JFK), Justice (RBG) Equality (MLK), and Christopher Marshall's Thanksgiving Variations on "We Gather Together."

For 2023, the 50-state Rhapsody National Initiative began with the Utah Symphony leading a three-season effort with Peter Boyer's Rhapsody in Red, White & Blue, with a world premiere recording of the new Rhapsody with Peter Boyer conducting the London Symphony Orchestra for a Naxos digital release earlier this year.

The 2024-25 season foresees a new work for piano and orchestra by Adolphus Hailstork to be performed with Pacific Symphony, Carl St.Clair conducting (Feb. 6-8, 2025), and GRAMMY®-winning singer-songwriter, Melissa Manchester's AWAKE for piano and orchestra (premiere tba).

Considered the most prolific artist of his generation, Moravian College in Bethlehem, PA, conferred the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon Jeffrey Biegel in 2015, for his achievements in performance, recordings, chamber music, championing new music, and as a composer, arranger, and educator. In 2019, Kenneth Fuchs's Piano Concerto: "Spiritualist" with the London Symphony Orchestra led by JoAnn Falletta received a GRAMMY® Award for Best Classical Compendium, featuring Biegel as its soloist. In 2019, the first digital recordings were released on Biegel's Naturally Sharp label: Cyberecital: An Historic Recording, A Pianist's Journey, and the September 2021 release of George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue in the 1924 version with the Adrian Symphony Orchestra, Bruce Kiesling conducting.

Biegel created the first largest consortium of orchestras in 1998 for Ellen Taaffe Zwilich's Millennium Fantasy premiered with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra in 2000, followed with Charles Strouse's Concerto America with the Boston Pops; Lowell Liebermann's Concerto No. 3 with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra; William Bolcom's Prometheus for piano, orchestra and chorus, with Pacific Symphony and the Pacific Chorale; Richard Danielpour's Mirrors with Pacific Symphony; Ellen Taaffe Zwilich's Shadows with the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra; Jake Runestad's Dreams of the Fallen with the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra and Symphony Chorus of New Orleans; Lucas Richman's Piano Concerto: "In Truth" with the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra, recorded with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra; and Kenneth Fuchs' Piano Concerto: "Spiritualist" with the Springfield Symphony Orchestra (MA). He also premiered and recorded Giovanni Allevi's Concerto for Piano and Orchestra and commissioned Christopher Theofanidis's Concerto No. 2 for Piano and Orchestra with the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra, the Peanuts Concerto by Dick Tunney, based on music by Vince Guaraldi, Jimmy Webb's Nocturne for Piano and Orchestra and, PDQ Bach's Concerto for Simply Grand Piano and Orchestra by Peter Schickele with the Colorado Symphony Orchestra. Bringing new music to youth orchestras saw the world premiere of Daniel Dorff's Piano Concerto with the Etowah Youth Orchestra, conducted by Michael Gagliardo.

Jeffrey Biegel studied at The Juilliard School with Adele Marcus, herself a pupil of Josef Lhevinne and Artur Schnabel, and is currently on faculty at the Conservatory of Music at Brooklyn College.
