

Saturday, Oct. 19, 2024 @ 10 a.m. & 11:30 a.m.

Jacob Sustaita, conductor
Victor Yerrid, scriptwriter/puppeteer
Dylin Rodrigo, actor
Pacific Symphony

The spooktacular celebration is in full swing! Maestro Jake, along with his music-loving puppet friend Leopold, emcees this lively Halloween concert, bringing you the best of eerie orchestral classics and music from popular fandoms like Frozen, Star Wars, Harry Potter, and Marvel Studios. You're part of the fun—dressed in your best costume, enjoying this bewitching symphonic party that's all treat, no trick!

Before the concert, explore the themed lobby activities! There's a coloring station, craft station, photo station, and S.T.E.A.M. station to enjoy with the kids. These activities run from 9 to 9:45 a.m. for the 10 a.m. concert, and from 12:15 to 1 p.m. for the 11:30 a.m. concert.

Pacific Symphony's Family Musical Mornings are designed for everyone ages 5 and up—perfect for the whole family!

MUSSORGSKY Arr. Rimsky-Korsakov	Night on Bald Mountain
ANDERSON-LOPEZ Arr. Krogstad	Music from Frozen
SCHWARTZ Arr. Ricketts	Highlights from Wicked
WAGNER Arr. Hutschenruyter	"Ride of the Valkyries" from Die Walküre
SILVESTRI Arr. Pellett	The Avengers
JOHN WILLIAMS	"Hedwig's Theme" from Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone Suite for Orchestra
	"Imperial March" from STAR WARS
	"Main Title" from STAR WARS

Performance at the Segerstrom Center for the Arts
Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall

AVENUE OF THE ARTS
COSTA MESA
—
TRIBUTE PORTFOLIO

